

215 J.P.S.
618781
TOWN PLANNING ORDINANCE, 1933.

ORDER, No. 1941, BY THE HIGH COMMISSIONER.

LIMITS OF THE NATHANYA TOWN PLANNING AREA.

IN PURSUANCE of the powers vested in him by section 16(1) of the Town Planning Ordinance, 1933, and on the representation of the Samaria District Building and Town Planning Commission, the High Commissioner has been pleased to order and it is hereby ordered that an area so defined by the Samaria District Building and Town Planning Commission in the Schedule thereto shall be a town planning area.

The limits of the area are indicated by a blue line on plan No. S/567/41 of Nathanya town planning area, signed by the High Commissioner and the Chairman, Samaria District Building and Town Planning Commission, a copy of which is exhibited at the District Offices, Nathanya, and the District Commissioner's Offices, Haifa, and may be inspected by any person interested during the usual office hours.

The town planning boundary cairns mentioned in the schedule consist of iron pegs set in concrete posts raised 30 cms. above ground level and bear the respective number thereon. Where the boundary cairns fall within a wadi or river or on the centre of an existing or proposed road, the cairns are located within the town planning area as near as practicable to the points mentioned in the schedule.

The schedule of the area published in Palestine Gazette No. 470 of the 14th October 1934, is hereby revoked.

By His Excellency's Command,

26th May, 1941. (Sgd.) J. S. MACPHERSON
Chief Secretary.
